Dear Mr. Carrico:

American Scitec Inc. is requesting two modifications to the Distribution License 04-21375-01E, the name of the company in Hong Kong manufacturing the detectors, and the name of the RSU at American Scitec Inc.

ITEM-1. Wing Wah Chong (WWC), the company in Hong Kong manufacturing smoke detectors for American Scitec Inc., has been forced into bankruptcy and can no longer conduct business. The assets of WWC which deal with smoke detector manufacturing have been acquired by Greaton Ind. Ltd. (GIL) of Hong Kong.

GIL has retained the great majority of both management and production employees from WWC, and manages those assets and employees from within the existing WWC facility. Additionally GIL retained Dr. F.H. Kendall Phd, Radiologic Health Physics Professor, Hong Kong University, the consultant who originally obtained the Manufacturing License for WWC, to supervise the transition and application for the GIL Manufacturing License. A copy of that License is attached. Additionally attached is a letter from Kwanwei Chen, Managing Director (President equiv.) of GIL. GIL is stating that with regard to the Smoke Detectors manufactured for American Scitec Inc.

- a.) The product manufactured is unchanged.
- b.) The manufacturing procedures are unchanged.
- c.) The quality assurance practices are unchanged.
- d.) The quality control practices are unchanged.
- e.) The manufacturing tooling used is unchanged.

In all areas of the manufacturing of American Scitec Inc. Smoke Detectors distributed under USNRC License 04-21357-01E the only change is the Name and Ownership of the company doing that manufacturing.
