The purpose of this modification is to incorporate the Security Clause. Accordingly, the contract is modified as shown above.

Section H, Special Contract Requirements, is revised by adding Section H.10 to read as follows:

"H.10, Security

a. In the performance of the work under this contract, the Contractor shall, in accordance with Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) security regulations and requirements, be responsible for safeguarding Sensitive Information and protecting against unauthorized disclosure, loss, and theft of the Sensitive Information in the Contractor's possession in connection with the performance of work under this contract. The Contractor agrees to comply with all security regulations and requirements of the NRC. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Contract, the Contractor shall, upon completion or termination of this contract, transmit to the NRC any Sensitive Information in the possession of the Contractor or any person under the Contractor's control in connection with performance of this contract.

b. Definition of Sensitive Information. The term "sensitive information" includes proprietary information, safeguards information, Naval Nuclear Propulsion Information, and other information withheld from public dissemination under the Freedom of Information Act, Privacy Act or Atomic Energy Act and information not exported to foreign countries. It also includes sensitive unpublished and otherwise unavailable fuel cycle information relating to the technology of enrichment or reprocessing.

c. A copy of the NRC Form 187 Security/Classification Requirements and NRC Classification Guide for Safeguards Information are attached and made a part of this contract."

All other terms and conditions, including the ceiling amount of $2,647,815.00, shall remain the same.

AUTHORITY
The policies, procedures, and criteria of NRCM 2101, NRC Security Program, apply to performance of this contract, subcontract or other activity.
