REQUESTED

Bernard M. Bordenick, Esq.
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, D.C. 20555

Dear Mr. Bordenick:

This is a request for documents and records pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. §§ 552, et seq., and 10 CFR §§ 9.1, et seq.

This request is made on behalf of the Long Island Lighting Company whose principal place of business is located in Suffolk County, New York.

In this request, the term "documents and records" is defined to include the following:

All reports, records, lists, inter-office memoranda, intra-office memoranda, data, telegrams, correspondence, schedules, photographs, sound reproductions, ledger books, log books, data sheets, graphs, catalogues, computer tapes, records or printouts, notes, records of telephone conversations, meeting agendas, attendance lists, minutes or notes of meetings, statements or any other handwritten, typewritten, printed, recorded or graphic material of any kind or description whatsoever.

The documents and records sought in this request are as follows:

All documents and records of any kind given by any representative of Suffolk County, New York, to E. G. Greenman or any other Nuclear Regulatory Commission inspector in connection with the conduct of inspection no. 50-~~332~~<sup>322</sup>/8302.

If the Nuclear Regulatory Commission decides to withhold from our client and the public or to refrain from disclosing to our client and the public any documents or records responsive to this request, then we request that you furnish us with a detailed statement of the reasons for denying access to each document withheld and the following information regarding each such document or record in order to enable our client to consider whether to seek a judicial remedy under the Act:

- (a) the date of each such document or record;
- (b) the identity of the author or authors and addressee or addressees of each such document or record;
- (c) the identity of all persons in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission or elsewhere who received copies of each such document or record;
- (d) the title of each such document or record;
- (e) the general nature and subject matter of each such document or record; and
- (f) whether each such document or record contains any factual information, including, but not limited to, data, descriptions, and critiques of methodologies or statements of policy.

If portions of any responsive documents are deleted before disclosure, we request, pursuant to 10 CFR § 9.6, a statement in writing describing the scope and reasons for any deletion.

It is not necessary that the documents be copied and delivered to us. We will be happy to review the documents that currently exist at the site. Note, however, that MILCO is willing to pay any appropriate copying costs or fees attributable to this request.

In light of our conversations concerning this matter, I hope it will not be necessary for this matter to be put through the normal FOIA timeframe. In any event, please call me if you have any questions regarding this request.

Sincerely,

T. S. Ellis, III
