Dear Judges Kelley, Carpenter and Bright:

OFFICE OF SECRETARY
DOCKETING & SERVICE
BRANCH

When visiting the LPDR for Shearon Harris on 10-19-82 (today), among documents received 10-18-82 there (according to LPDR librarian Linda Hickman), was a sheet showing CP&L files 40 copies of its answers to NRC staff questions. That is, CP&L sends NRC 40 copies, and then is complaining it can't find more than 2 more to serve intervenors. This is ridiculous. (Accession #8209090023)

There is also a letter dated September 9, 1982, accession #8209140280, attached to an affidavit showing 14 non-CP&L recipients (none of whom appear to be NRC either) for FSAR amendment #4. These are folks CP&L has sent copies to, according to the affidavit of S.R. Zimmerman, Manager, Licensing and Permits, for CP&L.

I also spent about 1 and 3/4 hours making 207 copies at 10 cents each while at the LPDR today. Near my home in Durham is a 3¢/copy self-service place, and a 4¢/copy self-service place. Within 4 blocks of me is a place that will do copying for me for 5¢/page. I think my time would be far more productively used in reviewing CP&L's submissions, though I try to make a few notes while copying on the LPDR's slow machine. At least this time it did not break down, and there were only 4 or 5 others who needed to use it, whom I had to make way for. All this for an incomplete copy of a document CP&L mailed off months ago (8/31/82) but which the LPDR had not received at my last visit. I made copies there 9.27/82 and stopped by once (or more?) between then & now, but nothing new had arrived. I ask you to take this info into account.
