1. the result of an event during the policy period that causes, or poses imminent danger of, bodily injury or property damage from the nuclear energy hazard, and
2. initiated by order of an official of a State or a political subdivision of a State who is authorized by State law to initiate such an evacuation, and who reasonably determined that such an evacuation was necessary to protect the public health and safety.

This coverage applies only to those additional costs (i) incurred by such State or political subdivision during the period of time the evacuation order is in effect and for an additional period of 30 days immediately thereafter, (ii) that would not have been incurred but for such evacuation, and (iii) for which such State or political subdivision does not seek or receive payment or reimbursement from any other party.

Within twelve (12) months after the evacuation is initiated resulting in such additional costs, unless such time is extended by the companies in writing, the entity seeking reimbursement shall render to the companies a proof of loss, signed and sworn to by an authorized representative of such entity stating the knowledge and belief of such representative as to the following: identification and description of such occurrence and evacuation; the authority and responsibility of such entity to incur such additional costs; the amount, purpose, date incurred, payor and payee of each additional cost; the relationship of each such additional cost to the evacuation of the public and to the necessary provision of emergency food, shelter, transportation or police services; how each such additional cost represents an expenditure that is in addition to, or in excess of, those expenditures normally or usually made, or provided for, by such entity; how each such additional cost represents an expenditure that would not have been made but for such evacuation; whether the entity has received, or will seek, payment or reimbursement for such additional costs from any other party; and all other contracts of insurance, whether valid or not, covering any of such additional costs.

The entity seeking reimbursement, as often as may be reasonably required, shall submit to examinations under oath by any person named by the companies and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examination all books of account, records, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by the companies or their representatives, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made.
