Dear Sirs:

Our response to the comments made on November 9 was served on you yesterday by Federal Express overnight delivery. We found after service was made that the duplicating service had erred in failing to center each page, cutting off the copy on the righthand side. The problem appeared to exist on all pages so that we are serving a complete new and corrected copy of our response to all parties.

We apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused you.

Thank you again for the opportunity to approach you with our comments.

Sincerely yours,

Marjorie M. Aamodt
