Dear Mr. Rathbun:

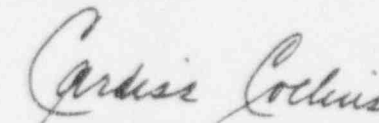

I am writing to inform you of a matter of concern to two of my constituents, and to respectfully request your assistance in addressing their inquiry.

Enclosed please find a letter I received from Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Oak Park, Illinois. The Johnsons have reservations over reports of exemptions that the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Department of Energy have from certain Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations requiring that States be given advance notice of shipments of radioactive material.

I would appreciate your attention to their concerns. Any information you could provide them regarding this particular matter would be helpful.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. If I can be of any help in expediting this case, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

CARDISS COLLINS
Member of Congress

Honorable C. Collins:

Both the U.S. Navy and the Dept. of Energy (DOE) enjoy an exemption from Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations requiring that states be given advanced notification of radioactive shipments.

I urge you to review these dubious Navy and DOE exemptions to Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations.

I thank you in advance for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
