Dear Ms. Meirow:

I am writing in regard to the depositions taken in the above titled case. As you are aware, Mr. Michael Kohn, Esq., has instructed your firm that he did not want any of the depositions transcribed except upon his request. This of course, does not preclude the other parties from requesting that one of the depositions be transcribed. In fact, the other parties have requested various depositions be transcribed. Consequently, the other parties have complained to us that there seems to be some sort of delay in obtaining transcripts of depositions when they request them. We have informed them that we do not know any reasons for whatever delays they seem to be experiencing. However, if there is anything, other than ordering a rush, that can be done by my firm or the other parties to alleviate these delays please let me know.

Additionally, it is my understanding that your firm does not need the reporter notes to transcribe the deposition. I am also aware that you had some sort of trouble with your machine and that you need the notes for three of the depositions. These notes are being sent via federal express tonight and should be in your office by tomorrow afternoon.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,
