

28-35-181q. Special licenses concerning gas and aerosol detectors containing radioactive material other than by-product, source or special nuclear material.

(a) An application for a specific license to manufacture, process, produce or transfer gas and aerosol detectors which contain radioactive material other than source, by-product, or special nuclear material, and which are designed to protect life or property from fires and airborne hazards, shall not be approved unless the applicant submits the information required by the United States nuclear regulatory commission under 10 CFR sections 32.26 and 32.27, as in effect on March 31, 1983, for similar devices containing by-product material.

(b) Each person issued a license under subsection (a) of this regulation shall:

(1) develop and carry out adequate control procedures in the manufacture of the product to assure that each production lot meets quality control standards approved by the department;

(2) agree to label or mark each unit so that the manufacturer of the product and the radioactive material in the product can be identified and provide other information with each unit that may be required by the department, including disposal instruction when appropriate; and

(3) agree to file an annual report with the department, which shall include the following information on products imported for sale or distribution or transferred to other persons for use under K.A.R. 28-35-192a or an equivalent regulation of the United States nuclear regulatory commission or an agreement state:

(A) A description or identification of the type of each product imported or transferred;

(B) for each radionuclide in each type of product, the total quantity of the radionuclide imported or transferred; and

(C) the number of units of each type of product imported or transferred during the reporting period. If no imports or transfers of radioactive material have been made during a reporting period, the report shall so indicate.

(c) The report required by paragraph (3) of subsection (b) of this regulation shall cover the 12-month period commencing on July 1, and ending on June 30, and shall be filed by July 31 of each year.

(Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 48-1607; effective, T-86-37, Dec. 11, 1985; effective May 1, 1986.)
