ORDER

August 12, 1983

In our order of August 9, 1983 partially granting the applicant's motion to compel answers to certain interrogatories from joint intervenors, we invited the NRC staff (as the alleged recipient of certain information from a confidential informant of the joint intervenors) to file, by August 15, a motion for a protective order if they wished to withhold either the informant's identity or the information tending to reveal the informant's identity. The staff now seeks an extension of time in which to file such a motion.

Because the staff apparently has not yet completed its investigation of this matter, the staff's motion is granted.

It is so ORDERED
