Re: Freedom of Information Act

Gentlemen:

We are the parent company of Pharmatopes, Inc., owner and operator of various nuclear pharmacies. Pursuant to a letter to us from Pharmatopes, Inc., a copy of which is attached hereto, we have been authorized by Pharmatopes, Inc. to request that you send to our counsel, Rosenfeld & Falk, 2029 Century Park East, Suite 3250, Los Angeles, California 90067, written confirmation that the nuclear pharmacies listed below are currently licensed by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission pursuant to the license numbers set forth below opposite the address of each nuclear pharmacy, that such licenses are in fact held by Pharmatopes, Inc. or Syncor Corp. (in those cases in which the name of the licensee has been changed to Syncor Corp.), that each such license is currently in full force and effect (i.e., no orders are pending or have been issued to revoke or suspend any license), and that you include with such confirmations a copy of the license when it was last amended in its entirety, and any subsequent amendments:

Attention: Jeffrey P. Berg,
Secretary

Dear Mr. Berg:

You are hereby authorized, on behalf of Syncor Corp. (formerly Pharmatopes, Inc.), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Syncor International Corporation, to request written confirmation from the various applicable regulatory agencies that Syncor Corp. is currently licensed to operate its various nuclear pharmacies, including confirmation from the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, state nuclear regulatory agencies, and state boards of pharmacy. You are further authorized to request that such agencies send such confirmations to Rosenfeld & Falk, special counsel to Syncor International Corporation, located at 2029 Century Park East, Suite 3250, Los Angeles, California 90067.

SYNCOR CORP.
