Mosbaugh: How many different people are we going to have generate the numbers?

Fredericks: Probably Hairston says he's going to generate his own. My guy hasn't finished yet.

Mosbaugh: You know. You can't change history. (Laughs)

Fredericks: We're just trying to solve it.

Mosbaugh: Solve history? Okay.

Fredericks: I'm supposed to not only come up with a number; I'm supposed to come up with why the discrepancy exists.

Mosbaugh: Huh.

Fredericks: I don't know if I can do that.

Mosbaugh: You can't do that without George's input.

Fredericks: No, if I have to go get it, I have to go get it.

Mosbaugh: You have to talk to George and Jimmy Paul Cash.

Fredericks: But the number I was -- I was supposedly investigating changed yesterday.

Mosbaugh: Well, yeah. They reved the LER again.

Fredericks: I thought we reved it on our end. How could they have reved the numbers? They don't have the numbers. I don't think they ever had the numbers.
