Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Generic Letter 95-07, "Pressure Locking and Thermal Binding of Safety-Related Power-Operated Gate Valves," Entergy Operations, Inc. (EOI) herein submits River Bend's required 60-day response as notification of our intent to implement the requested actions on the following schedule:

By November 15, 1996, EOI will complete the screening evaluations to identify potentially susceptible valves and document their operability basis, or take action in accordance with Technical Specifications.

By April 16, 1996, EOI will provide a 180-day response that describes further completed analyses and identifies any corrective actions required to ensure that susceptible valves are capable of performing their intended safety function.

The April 16, 1996, response will also provide the additional information requested by GL 95-07 to include a completion schedule for any planned equipment modifications or procedural changes.
