MEMORANDUM
(Attorney-Dictated Testimony)

We appreciate Applicants' candor in its opposition to CASE's motion for sanctions, filed yesterday, in stating, on page 4 that:

Counsel then . . . dictated draft testimony to a court reporter on October 3.

This does not, however, accord with the Board's expectation concerning the drafting of testimony. We had thought that Mr. Brandt was going to dictate his own testimony, in lieu of testifying live.

Consequently, we require Applicants to discuss the Board's order relating to this filing and to indicate their own judgment concerning the appropriateness of counsel dictating this testimony.

ORDER

For all the foregoing reasons and based on consideration of the entire record in this matter, it is this 2nd day of November 1984

ORDERED:

That Applicants may respond to this order by November 6, 1984.
Other parties may file responsive comments by November 13, 1984.
