RE: License 06-15796-04, Amend 06

Dear Paul:

We wish to renew the above manufacturing license for the ensuing 1983-1988 period. The current license expires September 30, 1983.

A review of the current license form NRC-374 with the notations and conditions expressed for the above license indicates the following deletions are necessary:

Form NRC 374 Condition:

Condition 12:

Change supervision at Fogelsville and Twelfth and Vultee St. from Harry G. Dinackus to K. L. Sacks. Change supervisor at Pennsauken, NJ from C. E. Gibbs to G. C. Halstead (both former designees have retired).

Condition 14:

Delete reference letters dated 5/25/77 and 8/17/77. Letters related to models that were delisted from our active list.

We wish to add Model SMK-6/MI Smoke Alarm to our list. The Model SMK-6/MI is identical to the listed Model 8201-401C/MI except for the external packaging. This is primarily an external graphics change with no change of product performance.

The following reference letters are relevant and should be retained in the active file; letters dated 12/19/74, 4/1/75, 4/22/75, 4/28/75, 5/10/75, 8/20/76, 8/30/76, 11/4/76, 2/14/77, 3/25/77, 6/15/77, 10/5/77, 11/29/77, 11/30/77, 1/26/78, 5/30/78, 1/5/79, 5/8/79, and 5/21/81.

The following reference letters should be deleted, namely those dated 5/25/77 and 9/12/77. These letters pertain to the Models 8202-2, 8203-2, and 8201-3 which were removed from the Distribution license.

Enclosed is a check for $460.00 covering the fees for renewal of a type 3A license per Section 170.31, 10CFR170.

Beyond the above deletions and file information, the above license activities will follow the previously submitted conditions, procedures, and representations.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate in giving us a call. On any correspondence, please address to the attention of the writer.

Thanks for your assistance and attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,
