SUBJECT: REFERRAL OF ALLEGATION 95-A-0045

Dear Dr. Karam:

The enclosure to this letter documents information received during discussions between Region II personnel and a concerned individual. The NRC has not made an attempt to ascertain the accuracy of the information supplied by the individual. The enclosed concerns are provided for your review and so that you can take the action you deem necessary and appropriate to resolve the matter. Also, the enclosed information is not being placed in the Public Document Room. Appropriate safeguards must be applied to the enclosed information, in view of its unsubstantiated nature, in order to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy or defamation of character of named or otherwise described entities or individuals.

The concerns identified in the enclosure should contain sufficient information for follow-up. However, because of the nature of this allegation, you are not required to submit a written response to the NRC documenting your findings, the results of your evaluation of these concerns, or any corrective actions that may be deemed necessary.

Should you have any questions regarding these arrangements, we will be pleased to discuss them.

Sincerely,

/s/

Edward J. McAlpine, Chief
Fuel Facilities Branch
Division of Nuclear Materials Safety
