Dear Lynn:

In response to your letter of September 7, 1984, which I received late on Friday, arrangements were made over the weekend to move the set of documents from Harrisburg to our offices in Washington today. The documents should be available here starting tomorrow for TMIA's review. Please provide reasonable notice of your intention to review the documents so that arrangements can be made in our offices.

Your letter of September 7, 1984 also requested that the set of documents be returned to Harrisburg so that they would be available for use during the hearings. We intend to honor this request, and will advise you before returning them to Harrisburg.

Sincerely,

Ernie
