Dear Ernie:

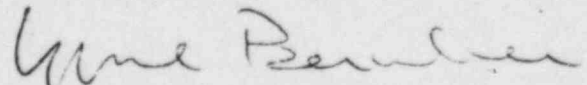

In accordance with our conversation early this afternoon I am putting you on notice that TMIA wishes to have access to the documents GPU has produced pursuant to TMIA's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production and TMIA's Second Set of Interrogatories and Second Request for Production during the evenings of September 11 to 14 and the weekend of September 15 to 16.

You informed me that the first set of documents would not be made available until tomorrow in Washington, D.C., and that the second set of documents on training would not be made available until Wednesday. This is a very short period for review given the noticing of depositions for the week of September 17, 1984. In addition Ms. Bradford will be making a trip to Washington specifically to review these GPU discovery responses. Therefore, it will seriously disrupt our preparation for the depositions if you fail to honor your oral commitment to me today to attempt to make the documents available for review in the evenings and weekends at your law firm.

Further, I am repeating my request to you, which apparently was not clear to you from my letter of September 7, 1984, that during the discovery phase of this litigation two sets of discovery documents be made available to the intervenors, one in Washington, D.C. and another in Harrisburg.

As I informed you, Louise Bradford, as well as Ms. Doroshow and I who currently reside in Washington, will wish to review the documents prior to the depositions scheduled by TMIA and UCS. Please inform me immediately in writing of your final position on this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Lynne Bernabei
