MEMORANDUM FOR: Martin G. Malsch
Deputy General Counsel

FROM: Nunzio J. Palladino NJP

SUBJECT: COMMUNICATIONS ON SHOREHAM

Congressman Markey's letter of April 12, 1984 requests a description of specified communications regarding Shoreham.

I met with William Catacosinos on February 23, 1984, shortly after he assumed the position of LILCO Board Chairman. Members of our respective staffs were also present. The purpose of his visit was to introduce himself to me. We had no discussion about the licensing of Shoreham. I have had no other communications to report in response to Congressman Markey's letter.

Nonetheless, I want to mention two additional matters:

- (1) I have been informed that on March 23, 1984 my office received a call from Mr. Phil Bray (GE) suggesting that I visit Shoreham.
- (2) I am attaching an April 27, 1984 memorandum regarding the U.S. District Court litigation on Shoreham.
