Dear Mr. Sinkin:

This is in response to your letter of January 30, 1985.

As your letter states, I was able, after checking, to confirm that my office did make a request for publicly available records of the Selective Service System. No "investigation" of you has been undertaken and no other request for information has been made by my office. In addition, I have been informed that our client, Houston Lighting & Power Company, has instituted no such investigation.

I find your digression regarding alleged events of 1979 as baseless now as I have your similar charges on other occasions. Equally fanciful is your conclusion that a single inquiry of a federal agency regarding a matter of public record, through procedures afforded by that agency (see 32 CFR §1665.7) is an "attempt to harm you professionally or personally."

Very truly yours,

Jack R. Newman
