 dated October 26, 1983

Our continuing special inspection of alleged Zack HVAC design and construction deficiencies has identified an issue of potential interest to your organization. Specifically, the individual stated that Zack management personnel had harassed and intimidated him during performance of his duties. The individual was employed at the Zack corporate office in Cicero from September through November, 1982. Additionally, Individual Z stated that he was dismissed from his job with Zack because he had talked with J. Foster of this office.

A copy of the interview transcript is attached for your use. The issues discussed above can be found on pages 51-58 of the transcript. Please contact me if we can be of further assistance.
