IN RESPONSE REFER
TO FOIA-84-487

Dear Mr. Huge:

This is in further response to your letter dated June 12, 1984, in which you requested, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, documents regarding Brown & Root, Inc.

In a June 24, 1984, telephone conversation with Mr. Stephen Isaacs of my staff, it became apparent that your organization was not aware of the records located in our Public Document Room (PDR), 1717 H Street, NW, Washington, DC. Several files may contain documents relevant to your request.

Docket files 50-445 and 50-446 (Comanche Peak Nuclear Power Station) are available for your inspection and copying. In addition, previous FOIA requests in the PDR which may contain information about Brown and Root are listed below:

- FOIA-82-513
- FOIA-82-603
- FOIA-83-289
- FOIA-84-2
- FOIA-84-210

The NRC has not completed its review of the remaining documents subject to your request. We will respond as soon as that review is completed.

Sincerely,

J. M. Felton, Director
Division of Rules and Records
Office of Administration

Re: Freedom of Information Request

Dear Mr. Felton:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the regulations promulgated thereunder by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission ("NRC") at 10 C.F.R. Parts 2 and 9, we hereby request that you provide us with the following documents:

1. Copies of all records in NRC's files pertaining to any studies, investigations, inquiries (formal or informal) concerning the Comanche Peak Nuclear Power Plant ("Comanche Plant") in Texas as well as any agency documents, internal memoranda, reports, complaints, citations and orders which pertain to the Comanche Plant.

We are primarily interested in any materials related to or concerning construction of the Comanche Plant, by Brown & Root, Inc., including safety conditions, employee relations, work standards, allegations of inferior work, faulty workmanship, deficient work standards, and deficient performance.

2. Copies of all records in NRC's files pertaining to any studies, investigations, inquiries (formal or informal), agency documents, internal memoranda, reports, complaints, citations and orders which pertain to Brown & Root, Inc., a Texas corporation involved in the construction of nuclear power plants.
