

Statement of

Ronald Leav McKee

My name is Ronald McKee, and I have been employed by Brown & Root for about seven and a half years. My position with Brown & Root is pipe foreman.

During the ~~summer~~ ^{first part} of 1982, I was involved in the relocation of the main steam line on one of the loops in Unit I. A portion of the pipe had settled and had to be lifted back into its proper location. Engineers were brought in and evaluated the effect of the proposed lift on the junction of the main steam line at the penetration in the containment wall. These engineers directed the use of the polar crane, and the line was lift vertically a few inches and was pull over laterally to its correct position, then resupported. I ~~do not~~ remember ~~if~~ the temporary flush pipe from the main steam line was cut before ~~the~~ the lift, ~~and~~ the traveler package would document this. I remember helping cut the temporary flush line after the Flush was completed. To my knowledge the realignment of this main steam line was done with engineering approval, and no damage was inflicted on the related equipment. I do not believe the line was left under tension when

I have read the foregoing statement consisting of 1 handwritten/ it was connected ~~two~~ pages. I have made and initialed any necessary corrections and ^{to the steam} have signed my name in ink in the margin of each page. I swear that the generator. foregoing statement is true and correct.
