AFFIDAVIT OF THOMAS M. DEVINE

The above, being duly sworn deposes and says:

1. My name is Thomas Michael Devine. I am the Legal Director of the Government Accountability Project (GAP), which provides legal representation to citizen organizations and employees who challenge illegal, dangerous or wasteful activities either undertaken or ignored by the government.

2. In July 1983 I drafted three affidavits from witnesses who had worked at the Waterford III nuclear power plant. Two affidavits (Exhibits 12 and 27) were drafted on the basis of personal interviews. One affidavit (Exhibit 8) was drafted on the basis of a prior, taped interview between a witness and Mr. John Clewett, an attorney working with GAP. The interview was taped with the witness' knowledge and consent.

3. All three witnesses explicitly based their willingness to sign affidavits on condition that their identities would remain confidential. In my interviews I explained the NRC's confidentiality policy and the concept of a motion for protective order. I also assured the witnesses that GAP would not publicly disclose their identities without their consent. After hearing ^{AD} these explanations, both witnesses agreed to sign affidavits. Ms. Lynne Bernabei of GAP has informed me that the third witness, the affiant in Exhibit 8, also agreed to sign an affidavit submitted under cover of a Motion for Protective Order.

4. The witnesses both explained to me that they did not want their identities public due to--1) a desire to protect their privacy; and 2) their concerns about retaliation from Louisiana Power and Light (LP&L) management, based in one case on the witness' own experience and in another case on the experience of his colleague the third affiant. The perceived retaliation included harassment, invasion of privacy and in one case termination.

I have read the above 2 page statement and it is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.
