NRC Docket No. 50-332-OL

Dear Chairman Palladino and Commissioners:

Enclosed you will find LILCO's Petition for Review of ALAB-800, along with the supporting Affidavit of John D. Leonard, Jr. concerning the effects of delay in conducting low power testing at the Shoreham Nuclear Power Station. LILCO requests that the Commission's review be expedited but has not proposed a specific schedule for disposition of these familiar, discrete issues, believing that to be a matter within the Commission's informal discretion.

One matter contingently before the Commission, discussed at pages 5-7 of the Petition for Review, is guidance to any remand proceeding which the Commission may believe is necessary. For the Commission's information, copies are enclosed of the suggestions of the parties, filed today with the Low Power Remand Board, concerning issues to be briefed at the outset of the proceeding. That Board has indicated its intent to set a schedule tomorrow for whichever of these (or other) issues it believes are necessary for preliminary briefing.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald P. Irwin
Robert M. Rolfe
Anthony F. Earley, Jr.
