Gentlemen:

Paragraph 7 of the Affidavit of Non-Disclosure executed by each of you (and by associates of yours) provided that:

I shall keep a record of all protected information in my possession, including any copies of that information made by or for me. At the conclusion of this proceeding, I shall account to the Appeal Board or to counsel for the NRC staff for all the papers or other materials containing protected information in my possession and deliver them as provided herein. When I have finished using the protected information they contain, but in no event later than the conclusion of this proceeding, I shall deliver those papers and materials to the Appeal Board or to counsel for the NRC Staff, together with all notes and data which contain protected information, for safe-keeping until further order of the Board. Where notes or other data containing protected information are delivered for safekeeping, they shall remain the property of the person or party submitting or delivering them.

Now that the proceeding on the operating license application for the Byron units is completed, I am requesting that you return to me all protected information provided to you as defined in the Affidavit of Non-Disclosure. The transmittal should be addressed to me and marked "Addressee Only."

The documents provided to you pursuant to the Affidavit were:

- 1) Letter from Richard Rawson to Jane Whicher and Michael Miller dated April 27, 1984, copy to Appeal Board;
- 2) Letter from Jane Whicher to Richard Rawson, dated May 4, 1984, copy to Michael Miller, Appeal Board and Licensing Board.
