Re: In the Matter of Commonwealth Edison Company
(Braidwood Nuclear Power Station, Units 1 and 2 Docket Nos. 50-456 and 50-457) OL

Dear Mr. Bock:

This is to confirm our telephone conference of this morning. By the agreement of all parties involved, the depositions of Ms. Lorraine Creek and Ms. Bridget Little Rorem will be conducted on Tuesday, May 21, 1985. Deposition of Ms. Creek shall begin at 10:00 A.M.; of Ms. Rorem at 5:00 P.M. The location of the deposition is unchanged from the prior notice, i.e., at the Chicago offices of Isham, Lincoln & Beale.

As you stated, Dr. Ralph Armington is departing for travel abroad and will be unavailable until after June 1. You agreed to make Dr. Armington available for deposition after that date at a mutually convenient time and place. We understand that Dr. Alwyn Scott is incapacitated due to a recent accident, and that you will make him available for deposition at some future date if you decide to call him as a witness.

Very truly yours,

Victor G. Copeland
