PROFESSIONAL MANPOWER - MONTICELLO CASE

To date the following professional man-days have been expended in the Monticello hearing:

Field Staff

Preparation to testify	76 man-days
Hearing attendance and participation (includes depositions)	55 man-days
	131

Headquarters Staff

Sanitization of inspection reports (includes supervision of clerical efforts on reproduction, tabbing, assembling, etc.)	15 man-days
Preparation of testimony--participating with DRL and field staff in resolving disposition items in inspection reports	15 man-days
Headquarters supervision - key staff	9 man-days
	39
	170 man-days

Five field professional staff and nine professional headquarters staff were involved in the above during the period March 9, 1970 through August 7, 1970.

The field and headquarters staffs are now engaged in the Palisades hearing case and, as you know, Dr. Morris in his 8-6-70 note to you indicated that several more of the eight public hearings tentatively scheduled for operating licenses by the end of the year may be contested cases.
