RE: Letter dated December 20, 1983 - Intimidation investigation at Waterford III.

Dear Sir

I was employed at Waterford III by [REDACTED]

I feel that there is a fine line between intimidation and harassment of an Q/C inspector on the job.

In the Q/C trailer (office) I felt and was subject to various forms of harassment both written (memos) and verbal - It was directed to us daily about; "work schedule, work hours, breaks, lunch schedule, eating, drinking coffee, amount of work performed & documentation, unauthorized meetings in the field, correct documentation, parking, phone calls, and office decorum."

"In the field -performing inspections, writting NCRs, or being audited (Q/A) I never felt pressure or intimidation to not do my job correctly to the codes/standards or site procedures."

I left (quit) [REDACTED] because of the work hours, pay dispute, office work space and bullshit - not due to any intimidation.

Please feel free to contact me about this letter.
