Office for Analysis and Evaluation of Operational Data

SUBJECT: LETTER FROM KENNETH BOLEY, PUBLIC CITIZEN, TO JOE FOUCARD, GPA, DATED FEBRUARY 5, 1988

Per your note to Paul Bobe, AEOD, dated February 9, 1988, you enclosed the subject letter which requested a list of all 1987 LERs, together with the "severity rating" of each LER.

Enclosed is the requested information, together with a proposed memorandum for forwarding to Public Citizen. Please note that AEOD has not yet completed review of all 1987 LERs; therefore, we will supply a revised listing during June 1988 for forwarding to Public Citizen.

Also, please note that the new FOIA rules may subject such requests to fee considerations. Therefore, we suggest that any future such requests be addressed through the NRC FOIA channels.

PROPOSED LETTER

Mr. Kenneth Boley
Critical Mass Energy Project
of Public Citizen
215 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Dear Mr. Boley:

In response to your February 5, 1988 letter to me, enclosed is a listing of the LERs which have been reviewed and categorized to date by the NRC Office for Analysis and Evaluation of Operational Data (AEOD). A complete listing of the LERs, and the categorizations, should be available by June 1988. We will forward it to you at that time.

The LERs listed are available for review at the NRC's Public Document Room. For your information the definitions used by AEOD for assigning LER categories are as follows:

Category 1: Designates events that warrant immediate evaluation because of their apparent safety significance.

Category 2: Designates events which appear to have safety significance but do not warrant immediate evaluation.

Category 4: Designates events with little apparent significance to safety.

For the 1987 LERs reviewed by AEOD to date, the enclosure lists no Category 1 events, 40 Category 2 events, and 2155 Category 4 events. It should be noted that the category of any event may be revised as supplemental information is developed and reported. Therefore, some changes to these categorizations may occur.

We hope this information meets your current needs. As you may be aware, new NRC regulations became effective on February 1, 1988 which implemented recent amendments to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) regarding assessment and waiver of fees associated with requested records. The enclosure would have been subject to possible fee consideration. Therefore, it is requested that you address future correspondence of this nature through the normal NRC FOIA channels.

Office of Governmental and Public Affairs
