Docket No. 50-322-OL-3
(Emergency Planning)

ORDER

For good cause shown, the Governments' (Suffolk County, the State of New York, and the Town of Southampton) September 27, 1988, "Motion for Bifurcation of Appeal and for Expedited Treatment of Jurisdictional Issue" is granted.<sup>1</sup> Replies to the Governments' September 27, 1988, "Brief on Bifurcated Appeal from the September 23, 1988 Concluding Initial Decision in LBP-88-24" should be in our hands no later than 3:00 p.m. Friday, September 30, 1988.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The Governments' motion (at 6) states that, according to information obtained from the NRC's Office of General Counsel, the Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation is not expected to make any licensing determination in connection with the 1988 emergency exercise before the next two to four weeks. If that representation is incorrect or has changed, we expect the staff to notify us of that fact promptly.

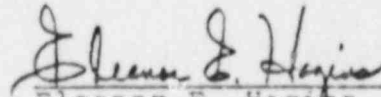

<sup>2</sup> The Governments have certified that they have served their brief today on counsel for Long Island Lighting
