ANSWER

Comes now All Chemical Isotope Enrichment, Inc., (AlChemIE), by and through its counsel, Stephen A. Irving, and for Answer to Notice filed by United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission in the Federal Register on April 28, 1988 would say:

1. Your applicant, AlChemIE, by and through its attorney, Stephen A. Irving, will appear and make necessary presentations at the Pre-Conference Hearing conducted pursuant to the referenced notice.
2. Your applicant urges favorable findings to its request for a construction permit and operating license at Facility - 1, (CPDF)
3. In support thereof, your applicant would show that the listed issues pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, should be resolved as follows:

Issue Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as Amended

1. Whether in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR 50.34, the applicant has described the proposed design of the facility including, but not limited to, the principal architectural and engineering criteria for the design, and has identified the major features or components incorporated therein to assure adequate protection of the common defense and security.

AlChemIE Response: Yes

2. Whether the applicant is technically and financially qualified to construct the proposed facility in such a way as to assure adequate protection of the common defense and security.

AlChemIE Response: Yes

3. Whether the issuance of a permit authorizing construction of the facility will be inimical to the common defense and security.

AlChemIE Response: No

Issue Pursuant to National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)

4. Whether, in accordance with the requirements of 10 CFR Part 51, the construction permit should be issued as proposed.

AlChemIE Response: Yes

4. Additionally, your applicant would aver that its proposed operation involve no radiological hazard to the environment, and the environmental report filed pursuant to National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) is sufficient to address and satisfactorily cover concerns raised thereunder.
5. That your applicant will be prepared to present relevant information addressing matters raised in the Federal Register notice, as appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephen/A. Irving, Counsel for AlChemIE, Inc.
