Dear Secretary,

I am writing in support of the recent Nuclear Regulatory Commission's proposed "clarification of emergency planning requirements for low-power reactors rule."

As long as the current rule remains ambiguous and is therefore open to (political) manipulation by various groups beyond the original intent of the rule then the requirements for low power testing ought to be changed.

It distresses me to know that Seabrook Station is complete and is sitting idle while this region begs for answers to its energy supply problems!

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Sheila Harper
