APPLICANTS' OBJECTION TO
PREHEARING CONFERENCE ORDER

Now come the applicants and, pursuant to 10 CFR § 2.751a(d), object to the prehearing order entered on April 1, 1986, the bases for which were articulated in a memorandum of April 29, 1986, upon which date the time period allowed by 10 CFR § 2.751a(d) began to run under the express terms of the April 1, 1986 order (see p. 2) as follows:

In its April 1, 1986 Memorandum and Order (at p. 4) and for reasons articulated at Page 60 of the Memorandum of April 29, 1986, the Board admitted that portion of NECNP's

Contention RERP-10 as was specified in basis specification "(e)". The Board's attention is respectfully directed to the transcript of the second day of the prehearing conference whereat NECNP's counsel stated:

"With respect to RERP 10-E, that dealt with the 24-hour capacity of the radiological monitoring labs. After discussion with the Applicants and explanation of a table, that contention is withdrawn." Tr. 2277 (Curran).

In light of the foregoing it appears that admission of NECNP RERP-10 as to basis item (e) may have been inadvertent and it is requested that the Board reconsider this matter and correct its Prehearing Order to reflect that NECNP RERP 10(e) is withdrawn.
