Dear Sir:

I am writing in support of adoption and implementation of your new ruling for low power testing, as applicable to Seabrook.

Also, I would like to comment on political and radical delays having a staggering effect on economic factors, not only in plant costs but in rates and taxes of communities with municipal power companies throughout the area. These costs will never be known but are enormous.

I feel most objections to evacuation, etc., have little ground to stand on. For example, if you can crowd an area in two to three hours, you certainly can evacuate the area in a like amount of time.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander J. Zalewski
