Subject: Measurex Quarterly Report for Q4

Any gauge listed below containing a radioactive source is licensed for distribution to general licensees under Measurex's specific license issued by the Agreement State of California. Individual customers may elect to possess such gauges under either a general or a specific license.

In the information on Measurex shipments that follows, individual entries are listed for each radioactive source shipped. Duplicate listings for a single customer site indicate that more than one source was shipped during the quarter.

Sincerely,

Measurex Corporation
