PART I.C COMMENTS (Use attached Comments continuation page if required)

We were unable to locate any records regarding the models "Handkey" and "Handpunch" hand scanners manufactured by Recognition Systems, Inc. or any records regarding Recognition Systems, Inc. As far the NRC staff has been able to determine, the hand scanners are bar code readers and they operate with laser sources and not radioactive sources.

You may wish to contact the manufacturer or contact the state government where the manufacturer is located.
