Gentlemen:

In accordance with the USNRC Demand for Information, Transnuclear is pleased to submit information concerning imports of South African origin uranium.

Transnuclear, in compliance with the USNRC February 4, 1987 request to refrain from importing any material of South African origin during the Commission review, has not imported any such material from December 31, 1986 to the present and currently has no plans to do so.

Should a plan arise to import South African origin material, Transnuclear will provide notice to NRC no later than 60 days in advance of each shipment date.

We remain available to provide any additional information you may require.
