16. Scope and Observations:

This was an announced remote initial inspection of an exempt distribution licensee that distributes a device called an Optical Module Validation Tool (OMVT), which is used as a counting standard to validate the operation of the optics system in the Abbott PRISIM system of an in-vitro immunoassay analyzer. Each OMVT tray contains two 5-microcurie carbon-14 sources, encapsulated in a solid scintillation matrix and bound into two separate reaction wells, giving an approximate total activity of 10 microcuries per tray. On average, the licensee distributes around 30 devices annually and transfers no more than 1-2 devices at a time. The OMVTs have been distributed solely from the Abbott Park, Illinois facility. The Irving, Texas facility receives the OMVT from the manufacturer, assigns standard values to each device, processes each device for final packaging and labeling, and ships it to the Illinois facility for distribution.

Performance Observations

This inspection was conducted virtually through Microsoft Teams and consisted of interviews with select licensee personnel, a review of select records, and an observation of security of the materials. The inspector had the staff described the package survey and receipt process. Interviews with staff revealed an adequate level of understanding of the handling, packaging, labeling, and shipping procedures for the devices. The inspector observed that the labels on the OMVT itself, and on the accompanying documents, contained all the required information. Additionally, the staff explained inventory tracking system, the ordering process for the devices, as well as their methods for maintaining records of each transfer with no issues identified. The inspector reviewed the annual materials transfer report dated January 28, 2021, that was submitted to the NRC.

No violations of NRC requirements were identified as a result of this inspection.
