Scott,

Below is an initial list of TVA employees (one recently separated employee) that I feel should be interviewed about the issues I have raised:

Beth Wetzel - TVA Corporate Regulatory Affairs Manager and a direct report to Erin Henderson (Beth is currently on a 18 month rotation to NEI).

Cell Phone; [REDACTED]

Tom Hess - TVA Corporate Regulatory Affair Program Manager (Tom resigned about a month ago and texted me that he had to leave because Corporate Regulatory Affairs is such a caustic environment where people are afraid to say anything and afraid to make a mistake.

Cell Phone; [REDACTED]

Sequoyah Employees:

Jonathon Johnson - Jon worked for me and was the Acting Site Licensing Manager during my suspension (I believe he is still the Acting Site Licensing Manager).

Zachary Kitts - SQN Licensing Engineer who worked directly for me during my tenure as SQN Site Licensing Manager.

Scott Bowman - SQN Licensing Engineer who worked directly for me during my tenure as SQN Site Licensing Manager.

Sandy Jung - SQN Licensing Information Records Specialist who worked directly for me during my tenure as SQN Site Licensing Manager.

Linda Williams - SQN Performance Improvement Specialist.

Debra Babylon - SQN Industry Affairs Program Manager.

Dennis Dimopoulos - SQN Operations Director. Dennis was my direct manager for about a year or so. During his tenure as my manager, Dennis repeatedly called me into his office for about 7-8 months and accused me of omitting Erin Henderson from emails and meeting invitations. He told me these complaints were coming from Joe Shea, the Vice President of TVA Corporate Regulatory Affairs. I respect Dennis and finally told him that either he or the SQN Site Vice President needed to contact Joe Shea and put an end to this constant harrassment.

I am currently enroute to California and should arrive there early tomorrow morning. I have my cell phone with me should you have any questions or wish to discuss.

Best Regards,

Michael McBrearty
