[REDACTED], we wanted to have this call today to provide you with the decision the NRC has reached on your case.

I will read to you a portion of the letter you will receive, which will not be publicly available.

This letter refers to an investigation completed on October 3, 2019, by the U.S. NRC Office of Investigations to determine, in part, whether you engaged in deliberate misconduct, in violation of 10 CFR 50.5, that caused an NRC licensee to be in violation of the Employee Protection rule, 10 CFR 50.7. A closed predecisional enforcement conference was held on June 24, 2020 to discuss this apparent violation, its causes, and your corrective actions.

Based on the NRC OI investigation, statements at the PEC, exhibits, and supplemental information, the NRC concluded that your actions did not constitute deliberate misconduct. Therefore, individual enforcement action against you is not warranted. Nonetheless, your actions contributed to a violation of NRC requirements. A copy of the enforcement action issued to TVA is enclosed with the letter.

You are not required to respond to the letter.

I will send you an electronic version of the letter later today.

Do you have any questions at this time?

Thank you.
