General Comment

Legal Notice

Any Individual who was placed in Jeopardy of life or limb in accordance with this unethical practice of cruelty must be awarded relief in accordance with due process of law.

No person shall be forced to endure continuous discrimination upon a successful court ruling, and in the event of Dishonor and fraudulent misrepresentation the settlement must still be awarded to the victim of Gross Negligence. A statute of limitation must not impact the process.

A person's personal health must not be monitored by any third parties excluding none, without proper direct compensation and the damages the courts ruled right and Just.

Incorporation of surroundings community governments in the discrimination practices is unconstitutional and prejudice .

I was wrongfully manipulated and wrongfully diagnosed, resulting in a life changing attack of gross negligence. The fact that discrimination is still taking place after the fact is absolutely the most unethical and prejudice practice in law.

In good faith
