RE: Don't Waste Michigan, et al. v. U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, No. 21-1048
(consolidated)
Filing of Corrected Opening Brief for Petitioners Fasken Land and Minerals, Ltd.
and Permian Basin Land and Royalty Owners (No. 21-1179)

Dear Mr. Langer:

Pursuant to the Clerk's Notice of Uncommon Acronyms received on March 21, 2022, Petitioners Fasken Land and Minerals, Ltd. and Permian Basin Land and Royalty Owners submit the enclosed Corrected Opening Brief in the above-captioned matter.

The following acronyms were removed and replaced in the Corrected Opening Brief: AEA, ASLB, CISF, DEIS, EIS, ER, ISFSI, MRS, NWPA, PBLRO, RAI, and SNF.

Because the removal of acronyms impacted the word count, additional changes were made to the brief in order to comply with the applicable word limit. The changes made include the following:

- The Statutes and Regulations sentence was shortened;
- Footnote 2 was shortened;
- The final paragraph of the Statement of the Case § A was deleted;
- The first sentence of the first paragraph of Argument § II(A) was shortened;
- Footnote 4 was shortened;
- The first sentence of the fourth paragraph of Argument § III was shortened; and
- The last sentence of the final paragraph of Argument § III was deleted and replaced with the final sentence of the preceding paragraph.

Finally, we made corresponding changes to the Table of Contents, Glossary, and Certificate of Compliance. No other substantive changes were made in the Corrected Opening Brief.

Sincerely,

KANNER & WHITELEY, L.L.C.
