

Brett Titus

During his 20-year career in the field of nuclear power, Mr. Titus has held several positions in the industry, with the regulator, and now as the Licensing Director at the Nuclear Energy Institute. In this role, he serves as the NEI lead for the License Renewal Task Force which includes a focus group dedicated to leveraging risk insights in aging management.