Subject: Revised PDC TR RAIs Uploaded to Box
Date: Friday, September 02, 2022 12:45:00 PM

Thomas,

I've uploaded the revised PDC TR RAIs to BOX, along with some staff observations. As discussed, this revision resulted in the reduction in the overall number of RAIs. However, the main question that I believe Atomic Alchemy would like to discuss with the staff related to burnable poison, is still on the revised list (RAI 11). We've scheduled some time to discuss further in a clarification call on Tuesday, 9/6/22, at 4pm (eastern). Please let me know if you have any questions in the meantime.

Thanks again,

Holly

Subject: Draft PDC TR RAIs Uploaded to Box

Thomas,

I've uploaded the PDC TR Draft RAIs to Box under the folder: NRC Documents>PDC TR. Please take a look when you get a chance to make sure it uploaded successfully. Once we've verified you're able to view, please let us know if you have any questions or need a clarification call before we issue formally. There also appears to be a folder titled, Assets, in the Atomic Alchemy Data Room. We haven't opened it, but wanted to make you aware, should it be something we shouldn't have permission to view.

Thanks again,

Holly
