1. Please indicate why the shipper address on the Shippers Declaration of Hazardous Goods is different from the authorized location of use and storage on the license.

The address on the shippers Declaration is the address in case the shipment is returned by FedEx. The Office is working limited hours and I (David Rhoe) did not want the package to be left unattended.

1. With regard to the leak test provided: please indicate why the license number on the title of the record is not your license number. Provide the units for the results of the leak test samples.

The license number on the title is the NRC licensee who is performing the leak test. The units are in microcuries.
