Here is a revised cell E49.

Please let me know if this addresses the comment for that one sufficiently.

Thanks,
Dan

Thanks!

Hi Alex and Dan,

I hope all is well. Thanks for resubmitting the PIP. We want to ensure that the PIP sets you on a path for success and demonstrates what you are doing to address recommendations and also be able to demonstrate how you measure if the implementation was successful. We updated some information and made some comments on the attached PIP. Please take a look at the attachment and let us know if you have any questions. Can you address comments and resend and let us know if you are ok with the other changes made. I will be out tomorrow but I have copied Monica who is available and willing to assist you if you have any questions.

Thanks so much for your patience and cooperation for getting this completed.

Have a great weekend,
Farrah
