Good afternoon, Michael,

Below (in RED), please see Constellation's input. Frank, Ashley could further clarify if you needed. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to provide input.

1. Is the proposed collection of information necessary for the NRC to properly perform its functions? Does the information have practical utility? Please explain your response. The proposed collection of information is not necessary, but it will help with planning future NRC resources to support industry efforts for digital modifications.
2. Is the burden estimate accurate? Please explain your response. 200hr range for a corporation the size of Constellation is more appropriate.
3. Is there a way to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected? The NRC can provide clarity on how far in future they are requesting this information for (ex: 3yrs out, 5yrs)
4. How can the burden of the information collection be minimized, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology? We don't see the need for any forms OR automated collection techniques at this time.

Thank you,
Sailaja

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission recently published a Federal Register Notice announcing our intent to submit an information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for "Pre-Application Communication and Scheduling for Licensing Actions Related to Digital Instrumentation and Controls." A supporting statement describing the requested information is available at <http://regulations.gov> by searching docket NRC-2023-0141.

As a potential respondent to this information collection, we are interested in your feedback. Specifically, we are seeking input on the following questions by February 5, 2024:

1. Is the proposed collection of information necessary for the NRC to properly perform its functions? Does the information have practical utility? Please explain your response.
2. Is the burden estimate accurate? Please explain your response.
3. Is there a way to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected?
4. How can the burden of the information collection be minimized, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology?

Comments can be submitted by going to <http://www.regulations.gov> and searching for Docket No. NRC-2023-0141. Please note that comments will be made available for public inspection. Because your comments will not be edited to remove any identifying or contact information, the NRC cautions you against including any information in your submission that you do not want to be publicly disclosed.
