David Fenton, Industrial Director -Additive Technologies
Cytec Industries, Inc.

Dear Mr. Fenton,

This message is regarding your letter on behalf of Cytec Industries, Inc. dated November 2, 2023. In your letter you informed our office of an indirect change of control of the corporation from the Brussels-based parent company, Solvay SA, to the Belgium based company Syensqo SA. To complete our review, we request that you provide a copy of the current and former organizational charts showing the licensed unit and the parent companies (before and after the change you described in your letter). Please include the parent company changes.

You may provide this information as paper copy via US Mail, as an attachment to an email or fax it to our office. It is important that your response does not contain security-related information. Should you need to provide such information please contact me for coordination.

Please note that our office address has changed. The current address is 475 Allendale Road, Suite 102, King of Prussia, PA 19406-1415.

Thank you for your cooperation. We will complete our review when we receive the org charts.
