Part 51.¹ The oral argument will be held in person in the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel's Hearing Room, located on the third floor of the Two White Flint North Building, at 11545 Rockville Pike, in Rockville, Maryland. The Board anticipates that the argument will not exceed two hours.

¹ See Miami Waterkeeper's Motion to Admit Amended and New Contentions in Response to NRC Staff's Final Site-Specific Environmental Impact Statement (May 8, 2024); Miami Waterkeeper's Petition for Waiver of 10 C.F.R. §§ 51.53(c)(3) and 51.71(d) and 10 C.F.R. Part 51, Subpart A, Appendix B (May 8, 2024).

NRC Staff and FPL each will be allotted 20 minutes. Miami Waterkeeper may reserve up to 10 minutes of their prescribed time for rebuttal. No other rebuttal will be permitted.²

Counsel should plan to arrive about an hour before the conference, entering NRC Headquarters through the One White Flint North Building, to allow enough time to proceed through security and to be escorted to the Hearing Room. On or before noon ET on Wednesday, July 10, 2024, counsel shall email Panel administrative assistant Twana Ellis (Twana.Ellis@nrc.gov), with a copy to all other counsel, specifying the names of the representatives who will be presenting argument and any other representatives attending on behalf of each party.

Members of the public may observe the oral argument in the Hearing Room. Alternatively, members of the public may listen to the oral argument on a listen-only telephone line. The Board will issue a separate order with the listen-only telephone number in advance of the argument. The argument also will be transcribed, and the transcript will be placed promptly in the NRC's electronic hearing docket, where it will be publicly available.

It is so ORDERED.

² As was the case for the initial prehearing conference, counsel should keep in mind that the Board has read their written pleadings. Accordingly, counsel should not merely repeat arguments, but rather should focus on the principal points in controversy and endeavor to provide responsive answers to any questions the Board might ask, with reference to material presented in the written filings. Counsel should not attempt to introduce new information during the argument.
